

PREGNANCY CERTIFICATE

To whom it may concern

To be completed by the attending doctor or midwife of the travelling passenger.

After the completion of your 28th week of pregnancy, you need to present us with a pregnancy certificate in accordance with the below:

Single/Multiple pregnancy	No pregnancy certificate required	Pregnancy certificate required	Not allowed to travel
Single uncomplicated	0 to end of week 28	29 to end of week 36	37 weeks onwards
Multiple uncomplicated	0 to end of week 28	29 to end of week 32	33 weeks onwards

Passenger name

Age

Last menstrual period

Expected date of delivery

Outbound flight date

Return flight date

I confirm that this examination was done on confirming an uncomplicated:
(Please tick where applicable)

- Single pregnancy of weeks gestation and the named passenger is fit to fly on the above referenced dates with your airline.
- Multiple pregnancy of weeks gestation and the named passenger is fit to fly on the above referenced dates with your airline.

Doctor or midwife signature

Doctor or midwife stamp or written details

.....

.....

Registration number

Date

Note: this certificate is valid for three weeks from the date of issue provided it is within the acceptable gestational period for travel. Consult your doctor to discuss any potential risks. Please note our Conditions of Carriage still apply and we may refuse to carry you on any flight in our sole discretion in accordance with Article 7.

